

Leaders in Healthcare Conference Monday 30 October 2017

Improving quality in a financially challenging environment

Purpose of the day

To understand and discuss how joined up clinical leadership can drive the economic impact of the quality journey.

Conference venue

ACC Liverpool, Kings Dock, Liverpool Waterfront, Liverpool, Merseyside, L3 4FP

Facilitator: Simon Bennett, Director of Business and Operations, NHS Improvement

Registration and refreshments from 10:00
10:30	Welcome Professor Sir Bruce Keogh, National Medical Director, NHS England
10:50	Opening address Sir Malcom Grant, Chairman, NHS England
11:30	Refreshment break
11:45	Strategic Quality Challenges - Workshop session This leadership workshop will focus on quality in an STP environment. What are the major strategic challenges and what can we do about it.
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Reducing Clinical Variation, Improving Value – GIRFT and Right Care Professor Tim Briggs, Chair of GIRFT and National Director of Clinical Quality and Efficiency, NHS Improvement Professor Matthew Cripps, National Director of NHS RightCare, NHS England
14:40	What works? – Improving Value in Medicines Professor Keith Ridge, Chief Pharmaceutical Officer, NHS England Lauren Hughes, Director of Clinical Policy and Operations, NHS England
15:00	Refreshment break
15:15	What works? - Delivering Quality Improvement at Scale Julian Hartley, Chief Executive, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust Dr George Findlay, Medical Director, Western Sussex NHS FT
16:10	Closing remarks Dr Kathy McLean, Executive Medical Director, NHS Improvement
16:30	close