Be aware of potential choking hazards
False teeth are often held in with cushioned adhesive pads

Acute breathing difficulty in a patient with false teeth might indicate obstruction with a denture fixative seal

If you remove a patient’s dentures, please ensure that the fixative seals are also removed